Rajasthan being a land of incredibly rich history, culture, heritage, traditional way of living, it is always known for its stylish rulers and their attire's. The rajput poshaks being symbol of such culture recently have become very popular in the Indian wedding culture too. Apart from iconic outfits like ghagra- choli, abhrak has, anarkalis, poshaks have come out as a very simple yet ethnic attire symbolising essence and core of the people of Rajasthan.
